

Artisans and Craft Production in Nineteenth-Century Scotland

A One-Day Conference at the University of Edinburgh, 50 George Square on Thursday 9 June 2016.

Speakers to Include

Annette Carruthers (St Andrews University); George Dalgleish (NMS);
Clive Edwards (Loughborough University); Stephen Knott (Kingston University)
Sally Rush (University of Glasgow)

Plus speakers from the Leverhulme-funded 'Artisans and the Craft Economy in Scotland, 1780-1914' research team led by Stana Nenadic (University of Edinburgh)
See website at: <https://artisansinscotland.wordpress.com/>

With contributions from Janice Helland (Queens University, Ontario) who will also be giving a free public lecture titled 'Fair Traded Textiles in Late 19th Century Ireland and Scotland' on Wednesday 8 June 2016, 5.15 pm, 50 George Square, University of Edinburgh

Topics will include amateur craft; the Arts & Crafts movement in Scotland; the furniture trade; silver and jewellery crafts; the revival of stained glass making; the relationship between craft production and modern industry; textile crafts.

Registration fee is £20 (lunch and coffee included) or £12 for students.

Registration Form: Artisans and Craft Production Conference: 9 June 2016

Name:.....

Institutional affiliation or address.....

Email address.....

Registration Fee included: £20 (OR £12 for students).....

Any dietary requirements:

Please return, with a cheque payable to the 'University of Edinburgh', to:

Professor Stana Nenadic
University of Edinburgh
School of History, Classics and Archaeology
Old Medical Quad, Teviot Place
Edinburgh EH8 9AG

For further information email: s.nenadic@ed.ac.uk or phone 0131 650 3839
The programme for the day, starting at 9.30am, will be sent via email closer to the event date.