

HCA before HCA:

An afternoon with Lodge, Calder and Childe

27 April 2012

School of History, Classics and Archaeology, Meadows Lecture Theatre

Join us for an afternoon of papers on three leading Edinburgh lights in the early to mid 20th century: Richard Lodge, Professor of History, 1899 to 1925; William Moir Calder, Professor of Greek, 1930 to 1951; and Vere Gordon Childe, Abercromby Professor of Archaeology, 1927 to 1946.

The afternoon will be structured around three papers, with discussion following each (and the chance to nip in and out of the Meadows Lecture Theatre), and a reception to pursue issues in depth in the McMillan Room afterwards.

Prof. Robert Anderson (Edinburgh),

*'Teaching not research':
Richard Lodge and Edinburgh History*

Prof. Charlotte Roueché (KCL),

From Edinkillie to Afyon to Edinburgh: tracing William Calder

Prof. Ian Ralston (Edinburgh),

*Gordon Childe at Edinburgh, 1927-1946:
from the field in Scotland to international synthesis*

*All papers will be in the Meadows Lecture Theatre:
Lodge at 3 pm; Calder at 4 pm; and Childe at 5 pm.*

