

Ancients and Moderns: The Varieties of Erudition in the Scottish Enlightenment

Workshop

Institute for Advanced Studies in the Humanities, Hope Park Square, University of Edinburgh

22 June 2011

9.45 – 10.15 am	Tea and coffee
10.15 – 10.45 am	Introduction (Colin Kidd and Thomas Ahnert)
10.45 – 11.30 am	Thomas Ahnert: ‘Ancients and Moderns: Paganism and Moral Philosophy’
11.30 am – 12.15 pm	Colin Kidd: ‘Ancients, Moderns and the Question of Troy’
12.15 – 1.30 pm	Lunch
1.30 – 2.15 pm	Katherine Nicolai: ‘Eclecticism and the Quarrel between Ancients and Moderns’
2.15 – 3.00 pm	Jeff Wolf: ‘Becoming an Edinburgh M.D. in the eighteenth century: Ancient and Modern’
3.00 – 3.30 pm	Tea and coffee
3.30 – 4.15 pm	Ralph McLean: ‘The Days of Classic Fame: Ancients vs. Moderns on the Scottish Stage’
4.15 – 5.15 pm	General discussion
7 pm	Dinner

The event is funded by a Research Workshop Award from the Royal Society of Edinburgh.