

Some of the School's key rooms and facilities

Jim McMillan Room – room 1.31

A common room for staff and postgraduate students named in honour of the first Head of School. The room also houses a kitchen with vending machines.

Rosalind Mitchison Room (undergraduate common room)– room 2.30

A common room for undergraduate students named in honour of the former Professor of Social History, Rosalind Mitchison. This social space offers comfy sofas, lunch tables, a snack machine, a tea preparation area with fridges and kettles, laptop tables and lockers.

Postgraduate Study Room – room 2.35

A study space with flexible hot-desks and specialist software/hardware. It has colour printing and copying facilities.

Teaching Computer Lab – room 2.36

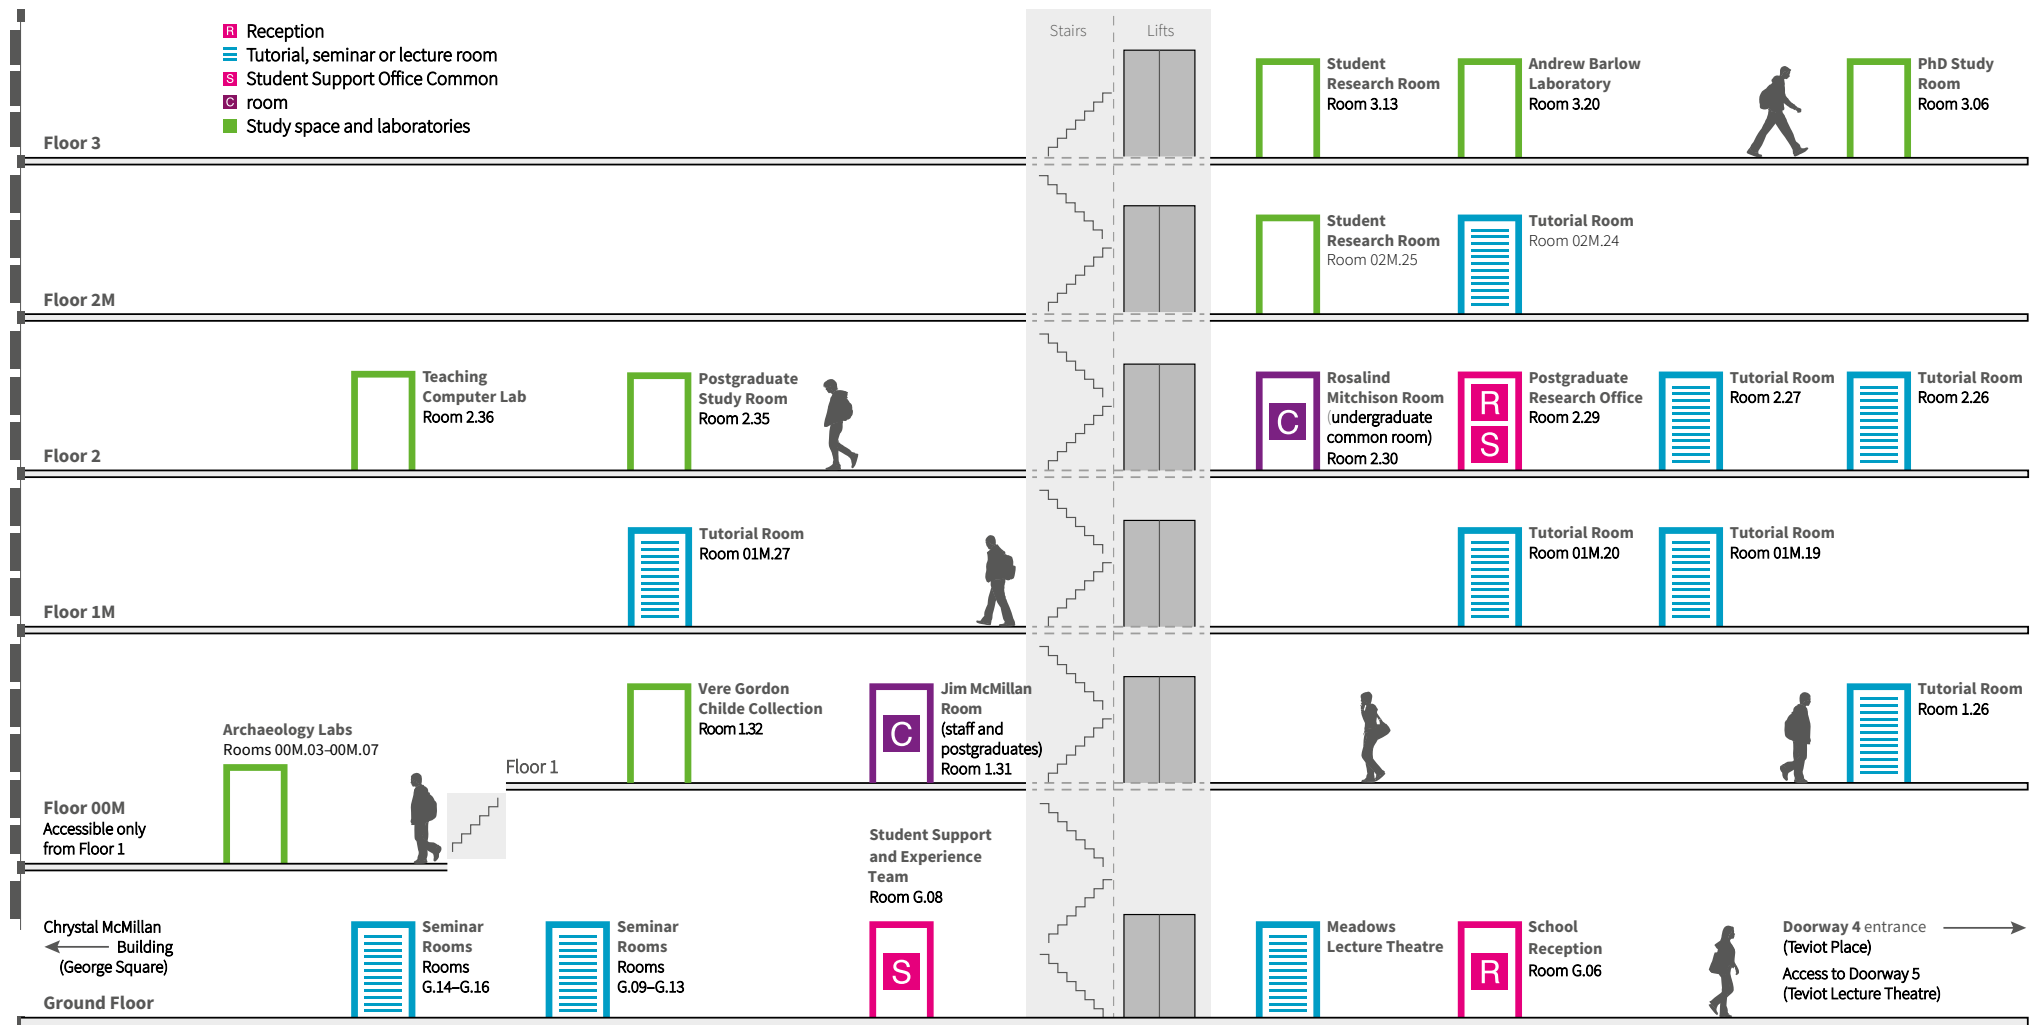

A dedicated teaching room for computer-based classes.

Student Research Room – room 02M.25

This large airy room is used for study and houses seven book collections and computing/printing facilities. This room is available for all HCA students.

PhD Study Room – room 3.06

A large study room with both hot-desks and allocated desks for PhD students.

This is a schematic diagram, designed to show the approximate location of the most commonly used rooms. Rooms which appear next to each other here may be on opposite sides of the same corridor.

Correct as of February 2024.